VESUVIO: Blood of Naples

Pitch Deck

An original idea by Ciprian Stefan Plesca

Logline

For ten years, an uneasy peace has held the criminal underworld of Naples together. When a single act of betrayal breaks it, three generations of one family — bound by blood, honor, and the mountain that watches over them — are forced to choose between loyalty to the past and survival in the present.

Format

Modern crime drama series. Season 1: 10 episodes x ~50 minutes. Multi-season arc planned (3 seasons minimum).

Tone

Grounded, character-driven prestige drama. Restrained violence, high emotional and political stakes. Closer in spirit to modern family-crime-saga television than genre pastiche — Naples as a living character, not a backdrop.

Audience

Adult drama audiences (18-49 core) who follow prestige crime and family- saga television; strong crossover appeal for international audiences via subtitled/dubbed distribution, given the strength of Italian-language crime drama in the global streaming market.

Why Now

Regional-language crime drama has proven, repeatedly, that authentic setting and dialect are a strength, not a barrier, for global streaming audiences. Naples — a city with a globally recognizable visual and cultural identity, and an underexplored one on premium television — is a natural next setting for this genre. The project arrives with story, music, and visual identity already built, reducing early development risk for a partner studio.

Style

- Visual: Naturalistic, high-contrast night photography; Vesuvius as a recurring visual motif; muted, desaturated palette with restrained gold accents (see </docs/Moodbook.md>).
- Sound: Original Neapolitan-dialect theme and score blending traditional motifs with modern, dark melodic production (see /assets/track_final.mp3).
- Language: Dialogue in Neapolitan dialect and Italian, subtitled — prioritizing authenticity over accessibility compromises.

Characters

Full profiles in </characters/> . Core ensemble: the Boss, the Underboss, the Wife, the Enemy, the Police Investigator, the Judge, the Priest — a structure built for a multi-perspective, multi- season ensemble drama.

Locations

Naples, Italy: the historic center, the port, dense residential rioni, and Mount Vesuvius exteriors. See /docs/story_bible/Story_Bible.md for full location breakdown.
